SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

While on probation, the defendant shall not commit any Federal, state, or local crime, and shall not possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall be prohibited from owning, using, or being in constructive possession of firearms, ammunition, or other destructive devices while on supervision and any time after the completion of the period of supervision unless granted relief by the Secretary of the Treasury. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the United States Probation Officer.

Further, the defendant shall comply with the standard conditions of probation as recommended by the United States Sentencing Commission, and which have been approved by this Court. The defendant shall also comply with the following special condition(s):

1. The defendant shall participate in the home confinement program for a period of 12 months, which will include electronic monitoring. The defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the program as determined by the United States Probation Officer. The defendant is restricted to his residence every day at all times except for medical needs or treatment, religious services, employment, or court appearances pre-approved by the probation officer. During the term of home curfew, the defendant shall abstain from the use of alcohol and shall submit to alcohol testing as directed by the probation officer.
2. The defendant shall participate in substance abuse testing, to include not more than 104 urinalysis tests and not more than 104 breathalyzer tests annually during the period of supervision. The defendant is to pay all or part of the costs of testing as determined by the United States Probation Officer.
3. The defendant shall participate in and complete a program of substance abuse treatment as approved by the United States Probation Office, until the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. The defendant is to pay part or all of the cost of this treatment, as determined by the United States Probation Officer.
4. The defendant shall submit his person, residence, place of employment, or vehicle, to a search, conducted by a United States Probation Officer, based on reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence in violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to the condition.
5. The defendant shall abstain from the consumption of alcohol and shall not enter establishments where alcohol is the primary item of sale. This condition supersedes standard condition number 7 with respect to alcohol consumption only.
